

hooker & holcombe

Evan W. “Bill” Woollacott, Jr., FCA, MAAA

Vice President, Consulting Actuary

Bill is vice president and consulting actuary of Hooker & Holcombe. He brings more than 30 years of actuarial experience to the firm. He joined the firm in 2007 after serving as a consulting pension actuary with a national actuarial firm. As an expert in both public and private sectors, his areas of specialization include nondiscrimination testing, union negotiations, DROP plans, arbitration testimony, pension plan design, annuity purchases, and FASB and GASB reporting.

For many years, Bill’s expertise was drawn upon to publish solutions to the enrolled actuary exams. He also served as past pension chairman of the Hartford Actuaries Club, has been a speaker at Enrolled Actuaries Meetings and has taught pension fundamentals for ASPA.

Bill earned a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from Butler University and a Master of Science in Actuarial Science from the University of Connecticut.

As an enrolled actuary, Bill is a member of the U.S. Government Finance Officers Association and the CT Government Finance Officers Association. He is also a fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries (FCA) and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA).