John N. Fuller, CFA

Vice President, Director of Operations
Investment Advisory

As Vice President and Director of Operations with the Hooker & Holcombe Investment Advisory Group, John is responsible for client accounting and reporting, investment technology, and investment research. He serves as the firm's chief compliance officer and is a member of the HHIA Investment Committee. His extensive experience covers a wide range of retirement related issues such as defined benefit plans, defined contribution plans, non-qualified plans and post-retirement welfare plans. John's expertise includes financial accounting standards, cost accounting standards and asset liability modeling.

Beginning his career at Travelers Insurance Company in 1987, John joined Hooker & Holcombe in 1989 as a pension analyst. In this role, he worked with a wide variety of clients including sponsors of corporate, municipal and church plans, serving as the lead analyst for some of the firm's largest clients. He has been involved with HHIA operations in varying capacities since its inception in 1996. He fills an integral role in designing internal processes and implementing relationships with affiliated service providers.

John graduated from Central Connecticut State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation and is a member of the CFA Institute. John is also a past President and former board member of the CFA Society Hartford.

Check the background of this investment professional on FINRA's BrokerCheck.