

News Headlines

- Hurricane Harvey hit Texas as a category four hurricane last Friday with damaging winds and catastrophic flooding. Five people have died as a result of the storm with thousands being rescued and displaced from homes. Cleanup and assessment cannot take place in many areas due to the widespread flooding which is expected to continue into some areas into next week.
- North Korea tested 3 short-range missiles on Saturday raising tensions yet again worldwide.

Economic News

- The Euro strength against the U.S. dollar rose to the highest level in more than two years boosted in part by anticipated economic impact associated with the hurricane and tropical storm in Texas.
- Walmart and Google announced a new partnership on Wednesday which is intended to compete with Amazon.
- The Commerce Department reported new U.S. single family homes sales slipped 9.4% in July.
