

hooker & holcombe

Pamela E. Minish, CFA, CAIA

Managing Director
Investment Advisory

As Managing Director of Hooker & Holcombe's Investment Advisory Group, Pam is responsible for overseeing institutional client relationships in addition to projects within the sales, research and management areas of the firm. She has been a part of the investment community since 1990 and her robust strategy and consulting background extends from Chicago to China and includes working with high net worth individuals, educational institutions and non-profit organizations.

Prior to joining the firm, Pam was with Key Bank as vice president and portfolio strategist, where she managed trust and non-profit portfolios. Previous positions include strategic consultant for A.T. Kearney Ltd. in Hong Kong and vice president of loan syndications and trading with Bank of America.

She earned a bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt University and her master's from The Thunderbird School of Global Management at Arizona State.

Pam is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charterholder and a Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA). She currently is a board member of the CFA Society Hartford and has been a conference panel speaker and student mentor at the UConn School of Business.

Check the background of this investment professional on FINRA's BrokerCheck.