

hooker & holcombe

Rodger K. Metzger, CFA

President, Chief Investment Officer

Hooker and Holcombe Investment Advisors, Inc.

Experience

Rodger is president and chief investment officer of Hooker & Holcombe Investment Advisors, Inc. (HHIA) and chairman of the board of Hooker & Holcombe, Inc., the parent company of HHIA, an SEC registered investment advisor. In his current position, Rodger leads the team of professionals who furnish advisory services. He is also the client relationship consultant for HHIA's largest and most sophisticated clients, is responsible for directing the asset allocation and fund research efforts of HHIA and is the chairman of the HHIA Investment Committee. Rodger's investment and institutional money management expertise brings an increased sophistication to the fund selection and monitoring process.

Prior to joining the firm, Rodger was with Hartford Investment Management Company, a subsidiary of Hartford Financial Services Corporation (HIG), where he was vice president and equity portfolio manager.

Education

Rodger earned a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from St. Lawrence University and a Master's in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from the University of Hartford. He earned his Charter from the CFA Institute in 1994.

Professional Affiliations

Rodger serves as an Advisory Council member for both J.P. Morgan RIA and Legg Mason Client Solutions, in addition to memberships with the CFA Institute and CFA Society of Hartford. He also devotes his time as a consultant or board member for various organizations in Connecticut.